Some rebels in the Congo country, where the Dutch government is doing some benevolent assimilating, gave the Dutch troops a warm reception a short while ago. They captured a lot of the soldiers, killed, roasted and ate them.

Li Hung Chang was buried in a casket which he took with him when he made his tour around the world several years ago. He went prepared for emergencies then, and since, whenever he changed his base, that coffin was part of his outfit.

A company is being organized to establish an electric plant on the Susquehanna river, a $3,000,000 plant to supply Harrisburg, 11 miles distant, and other towns with power. It will rank next to the Niagara plant.

The negro steamboat roustabouts on the lower Mississippi are no small fry. They get $75 a month. They struck some time ago for $100, but the police locked a lot of them up as vagrants, and they concluded to work for the old wage $75.

It is said that Sir Thomas Lipton is going into the trucking business in South Georgia. His company runs about 3,000 stores in Europe and he is going to grow truck in Georgia to supply them. He will run steamers for this express purpose.

A Chicago inventor, Thomas W. Pryor, has invented a cotton gin which gins the cotton by passing it through rollers, which remove the lint without injuring it. It is claimed that it has double the capacity of the saw gin and that the cotton ginned by it is worth from a cent to a cent and a half a pound more.

Some of the astronomers have not yet given up that meteor shower they sat up nights looking for a year ago. They say the failure to put in an appearance was not the fault of the meteors, but of the calculators who figured wrong. We may look for them, they say, on the nights of 14th or 15th of this month.

"NATHAN HALE" TO-NIGHT.

Popular Historical Drama, With Mr Howard Kyle in the Leading Role.

"Nathan Hale," as produced by Howard Kyle, will be one of the strong dramatic treats of the season. It is from the pen of one of the most gifted playwrights of the day, Clyde Fitch, Esq., whose successes, "Beau Brummel," "Barbara Fritchie," "Sapho," "Moth and the Flame," "The Climbers" and "Lover's Lane," have won for him a reputation excelled by no other American dramatist.

Mr. Clyde Fitch never did more creditable work in his life than when he gave to the lovers of the drama his "Nathan Hale." This is a broad assertion, for this young writer has probably produced more success in recent years than any other playwright in this country; nevertheless, this has been the almost universal verdict of those who have had the good fortune to witness the performance of his various plays. "Nathan Hale" is a play worthy of any stage, and one which will not be eclipsed soon. The play being a masterpiece in itself, is intererpreted by a company that is almost admirably adapted to their work, and meet all the demands made upon them. Mr. Kyle in the leading role merits all the requirements, and is most effective throughout. Seats are now on sale at Gerken's.

The curtain will not rise this evening until 8:45 o'clock. Many people who expect to attend the wedding at St. James' have asked Manager Schloss to delay the opening of the performance fifteen minutes in order that they may be able to see the beginning of the play.

WHAT THE "REGISTER" SAYS.

"Blind Tom's" Appearance in Columbia, S. C., a Great Success.

"Blind Tom," the wonder of the world, comes to the Opera House for three performances, Thursday, Friday and Friday matinee. The Columbia Register says:

"The largest audience that attended any performance at the Opera House this season greeted 'Blind Tom' last night. The Register said Tom is a 'musical wonder' and he is. The Register said that every one who could attend should do so and they did. The people read the Register to learn the facts about any and every thing."

Seats on sale to-morrow morning at Gerken's. Price 50 cents. No extra charge for seats.

Rev. R. H. Herring Resigned.

At a congregational meeting of the Southside Baptist Church Sunday morning, Rev. R. H. Herring, who has served the church faithfully and with much ability the past two years, tendered his resignation. The congregation refused to accept it and urged that he withdraw it, but no decision as yet has been reached by him, neither has he announced his plans for the future in the event he presses the resignation. Rev. Mr. Herring is deservedly popular and it is hoped by a large number of friends that he will at length decide to remain here.

Insane Colored Woman Removed.

The insane colored woman, Ellen Carter, who has made things hideous with her ravings about the county jail, especially at night, for the past several weeks, has been removed to the County Home by order of the County Commissioners. The woman is violently crazy and should, for humane reasons, have been transferred to a hospital for the insane long ago, but there is no room for her in the State institution for the colored and thereby hangs the reason she has not been sent away. Her case is a very pitiable one.

HAUSER IN PRISON.

Talks of Past and What the Future Has in Store For Him.

MAINTAINS HIS INNOCENCE.

Says He Will Make Written Statement to Supreme Court—Occasion of His Coming to Wilmington—His Marriage Here.

Yesterday a reporter had a talk in the jail with H. Hauser, the Swiss jeweller and watchmaker who was convicted, after a lengthy and sensational trial in the Superior Court and sentenced Saturday night to a term of ten years in the State penitentiary for house-burning.

Mr. Hauser appeared perfectly resigned to his fate but spoke of the natural hardships of jail life and the ruin of his name in the community. He is confined in the upper tier of cells in the main part of the jail building and has a comfortable cot for sleeping and an improvised desk for writing. Although he has not the freedom of the corridor of the main jail building, he has the freedom of the cell enclosure and appears to be making the best of his condition. Next to the apartments assigned him is the cell in which E. Tiner and Hector McLauchlin are confined. They are the young white men who were arraigned in court Saturday and will be tried at the next term for burglary in the first degree. Mr. Hauser has opportunity of conversing and associating with them, making his confinement less solitary and onerous.

The convicted man talked freely with the reporter and expressed a hope that his friends might raise the bond necessary to his release pending the passage upon his case by the Supreme Court. He said that if he was still confined in jail he would prepare a a written statement of his case and send it to the court, which might secure his release.

Mr. Hauser said that he was born in Switzerland, and was first engaged in the English secret service in Australia. He was there for a number of years, and travelled to many countries, finally landing in San Francisco. He travelled from there at length, and later went to Canada and then to New York. He still remained in the secret service, and at length came to Beaufort, N. C., and later to Newbern, at both of which places he did detective work, practising his trade as a jeweller and watchmaker more for a "blind" to criminals than for pecuniary reward. He came to Wilmington from Newbern about six years ago, he said, to ferret out for the New Hanover Board of Commissioners the incendiary burning about that time of the Union school building. He worked on the case and had it nearly to completion when the board refused him a further appropriation of $50 to complete the case and he was forced to leave it. He then took up his trade here as a watchmaker and was married by Justice of the Peace McEvans about five years ago, his wife coming from New York for the ceremony, her parents having objected to the marriage before because of his religious belief. The parents soon, however, came to his own belief and the marriage was without objection. After he was married, he said he had decided to locate in Wilmington for life until the present misfortune came to him.

When the name of his wife was mentioned to him or that of any of his family, he broke down and cried. He said he could stand any sentence, if it were for forty years, but when he thought of his wife he could not conceal his emotions. She, he said, had gone to New York about two weeks before the fire in response to a message that a relative was not expected to live and she had not returned since.

Mr. Hauser is furnished with his meals by friends in the city and says he is as comfortable as any one could be under the circumstances. He has an abundance of writing material, with printed letter heads, and says he has spent much of his time so far in reading and writing.

He says he joined the Masonic order in the East Indies, but has no affiliation with the local lodges. He wears an emblem on the lapel of his vest. He also joined the order of Druids after he came to Wilmington, but belongs to no other organizations. He is a man of splendid physique and weighs 215 pounds. He says unless he can show his innocence to the world, his hopes will be blasted forever.

Temporary Rector of St. James'.

Rev. Frederick H. T. Horsfield, of Cambridge, N. Y., who has served very satisfactorily for the past several months as temporary rector of St. James' parish, this city, succeeding Rev. Robert Strange, D.D., has been extended a call and has accepted the same to continue as rector of the parish for another year. The news is welcome indeed to the congregation of St. James, to whom Mr. Horsfield has strongly endeared himself.

Will Myers Be a Murderer?

Cora Myers, the colored woman who was shot Saturday afternoon by her husband, was improving some at the Hospital last night though she is still in great danger of death. If she should die, Henry Myers, who is in the station house, will be held for murder in the first degree. Thus far the woman is unable to take nourishment.

BRILLIANT GERMAN IN MASONIC TEMPLE.

Delightful Dance Last Night in Honor of Visiting Young People For An Approaching Nuptial Event.

Last night in the Masonic Temple ball room, which was profusely decorated with flowers and evergreens for the occasion, a beautiful complimentgerman was given in honor of visiting young people who are here to attend the Bellamy-Williamson marriage in St. James' Episcopal Church this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The dance was gracefully led by Mr. Clayton Giles with Miss Sue Mc Queen, and the music was by Hollowbush's Orchestra. The following couples were present and participated in the dance:

COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION.

No Meeting On Account of Lack of a Quorum—Treasurer's Statement.

There was no meeting of the County Board of Education yesterday afternoon on account of the lack of a quorum. Col. W. A. Johnson, the chairman, was the only member in attendance and in the absence of the other members he audited bills for current expenses and the report of County Treasurer H. McL. Green for the month of October.

Treasurer Green's statement shows a balance on hand of the school fund from September account, $16,470.42, and receipts during the month as follows: Rent, $244.35; poll and property tax, $5,376.75; magistrates, $15; liquor license, $95. Total receipts, $5,731.26. Total fund, $22,201.55. The disbursements for the month were $3,669.42, leaving a balance to November account of $18,532.13.

Professor Washington Catlett, the county superintendent, was also present and confered with Col. Johnson relative to a number of routine matters of educational interest.

THE "WILMINGTON" BACK IN PORT.

Cape Fear's Handsome Passenger Steamer is Now in the Finest Condition.

After an absence of three weeks for repairs at Baltimore, Md., the steamer Wilmington arrived in port yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. She was detained at Ocracoke for a short while on account of head winds but made remarkable time from that point to Southport, arriving there at 6 A. M. The trip from Baltimore, Capt. Harper said, was a pleasant one.

While at Baltimore a new and larger boiler was installed in the boat, her engine thoroughly overhauled, and all pipe and valve fittings put in anew by the E. J. Codd Company at a cost of about $6,500. The boiler is of the newest type and will give the Wilmington a better speed and absolute safety. The old boiler had done service for about twenty years, and with the new machinery just installed the steamer is in as good condition as when first launched.

The Greatest Meeting of All.

Last night at the First Baptist church the revival spirit broke through the walls of resistance at the First Baptist church, after Mr. Greenwood had preached a powerful sermon on "Excuses," and twelve persons came forward and confessed their sins and professed faith and satisfaction in Christ. The meetings Sunday were of unusual interest. At 11 A. M. twelve were received for baptism. At 4 P. M. the great building was filled with men and there was not a vacant seat. At night the house was packed and a spiritual sermon on "Repentance" moved the great throng. Two services will be held to-day; at 3:30 P. M., subject, "The Lord's Second Coming;" at 7:30 P. M. the last service will be held.

DELEGATES ARRIVING

Eighth Annual Convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

SESSIONS BEGIN TO-MORROW

Local Committees Are Alive to the Pleasure of Entertaining and Will Receive Visitors in Royal Manner—Sessions at Y. M. C. A.

Delegates and visitors to the eighth annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which will be convened to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock in the spacious auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association, will begin arriving in large numbers to-day; indeed, a number of them are already here, but the greater number will come on the several trains to-day. Attached to the regular Seaboard Air Line train at noon will be a special Pullman car, which left Atlanta last evening, bringing many of the ladies from that territory and sections adjoining. Among those who came yesterday were the Misses Serpell, of Norfolk, Va., who are guests of friends in the city; Mrs. J. D. Beale and Mrs. W. C. Merchant, of Montgomery, Ala., and Miss Julia A. Monroe and Miss Fannie J. Abbott, of Alexandria, Va., who are guests at The Orion.

Mrs. Edwin Weed, of Jacksonville, Fla., president of the United Daughters, is a guest of Mrs. N. V. Randolph, of Richmond, Va., and will leave that city for Wilmington to-day. Mrs. Weed is the wife of Bishop Weed, of Florida, and it is largely due to her that the Daughters have enlarged their membership roll in the last three years from 17,000 to 25,000. Mrs. Weed is tall, handsome, and distinguished in appearance, and sparkling with wit and humor in conversation. During her term of office she has been from Florida to California, all through the northern and western States, and over 12,000 miles in all, in the interest of the Daughters. She has made a reputation at all the conventions by her brilliant speeches.

Mrs. Wm. Reed, of New York, first vice-president, and Mrs. S. Thomas McCullough, of Staunton, Va., second vice-president and chairman of the executive board, are also visiting in Richmond, and will arrive, perhaps, this evening.

Mrs. M. M. Rosenberg, of Galveston, Tex., is also in Richmond on her way to Wilmington and is the guest of friends there. She is the possessor of an extremely handsome chapter flag which she carries to all the conventions. At the last convention in Montgomery, Ala., she entered the hall with the insignia draped in black in memory of Galveston's disaster and it was received by the whole assemblage standing.

Among the prominent members of the Virginia delegation will be Miss Tyler, daughter of Governor Tyler, who will come as a delegate from Radford, Va., and Mrs. Robert T. Meade, president of the Grand Division of the Daughters, who will come as a delegate from Petersburg.

The reception committee will meet all trains, beginning this morning, and a register of those arriving will kept at The Orton by Mrs. R. W. Hicks, chairman of the Information Bureau Committee.

To-day will be one of committee meetings in preparation for the regular session to-morrow morning. To these sessions the public is most cordially invited. Special seats will be assigned to delegates but the remainder of them will be for the occupancy of all who desire to attend the sessions.

There will be several public and a large number of private social functions for the entertaiment of the visiting ladies upon this occasion and it is the wish of everyone that they shall enjoy to the fullest measure the coming to the city which played such a prominent part in the Confederacy's cause.

THEY RENOUNCED CONFUCIANISM.

Four Chinamen Became Members of Grace Methodist Church Sunday.

Four members of Wilmington's colony of a dozen or more Chinamen made a public confession of Christianity at Grace M. E. Church Sunday and had their names recorded on the church register. They were brought to a profession of the Christian religion through the influence of the Sunday school upon which they have been constant attendants for some time.

In joining the church they wished to recognize those of the Sunday school workers who had been instrumental in bringing them to the light of a true religion, and accordingly adopted the surnames of Mr. W. B. Cooper, the superintendent, Mr. C. C. Covington and Misses Parmele and Kirkham, teachers in the school, in the following manner: Ley Cooper Wah, Lum Parmele Hee, Lum Kirkham Sing and Charley Covington Sing.

Derelict Steamer "Seabright."

Messrs. Brooks & Taylor, who recently purchased the derelict steamer Seabright on the Bald Head Island shoals at the mouth of the river, have removed practically all the machinery from the hull and brought it up to this city. The hull, they think, will be worthless and no disposition has yet been made of the machinery. It is believed, however, that the firm will build another hull and install the machinery in a brand new steamer for the river and coast trade.

DEATH OF MR. H. VON GLAHN

Passed Away at His Home in Wilmington This Morning Soon After Midnight at An Advanced Age.

Mr. Henry VonGlahn, an aged and highly respected citizen of Wilmington, entered into rest this morning at ten minutes past twelve o'clock at his home on the southwest corner of Fifth and Princess streets, after an immediate illness since last Wednesday.

Mr. VonGlahan had been in ill health for several years and death resulted this morning from heart disease super induced by old age. He was a native of Germany and was in his 79th year. Long ago he came to Wilmington and engaged in business and has since made this city his home. For many years he was a member of the firm of Evans & VonGlahn, large shoe dealers, and later engaged in the shoe business for himself on Market street. About three years ago, on account of failing health, he was forced to retire from active life and had since devoted himself to the management of a competent estate acquired during his long business career. He was a man of good business ability and rare good judgment. His death, although at a ripe old age, will be deeply regretted by the community at large.

Deceased is survived by a sorrowing wife and two sons, Messrs. Henry and Charles VonGlahn and two daughters, Misses Annie and Carrie May VonGlahn. To the bereaved ones the sympathy of many friends will come upon the announcement of the death. Mr. W. C. VonGlahn, so well and favorably known in the city, is a nephew of the deceased.

The funeral arrangements will be made later.

SAD DEATH OF YOUNG MAN.

Mr. Theodore F. Willis, a Telegraph Operator, Died in the Hospital.

Theodore F. Willis, aged about 30 years, a native of Morehead City and for the past several weeks employed as an operator in the Western Union Telegraph office in Wilmington, died yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock in the Memorial Hospital, whither he had been taken two hours before from his boarding house at Mrs. Greenabaum's on North Front street.

The young man had been suffering from catarrh of the stomach for a number of years and was taken violently ill while at his work Sunday night about 11 o'clock. He went to his boarding place and was attended by a physician all night. He relapsed into unconsciousness, however, before day and was removed to the hospital. He never rallied and his soul took its flight at the hour named.

Deceased was a cripple for nearly all his life and as an orphan was adopted by Mr. A. H. Webb, of Morehead. The remains were prepared for burial by Undertaker J. F. Woolvin and sent to his home yesterday afternoon.

At Delgado Mills.

To accommodate the families of additional operatives, a number of new and handsome cottages are being built at Delgado Mills. It is learned that the company is placing additional machinery, and that the output will be very considerably increased. Superintendent Bain, who recently resigned and went to Greensboro, has returned to his position and received a very cordial welcome from the operatives. The artesian water at the village is as clear as crystal and a great blessing to the people there.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 12.

"NO TARIFF TINKERING."

There has been a good deal said about tariff revision, reciprocity, etc., but anyone who looks for any material revision of the tariff or for any material legislation looking to reciprocity will be very much disappointed. The Republican statesmen have no idea of reducing the tariff on imports, although they are playing to fool the people with talk on revision and reciprocity. The only proposition made so far is to reduce the duties on some lines of exports that are sold for less abroad than at home, and that was only by a small number of Republicans who agree with Representative Babcock, of Wisconsin, who believes that this is the way to curb the Steel Trust and similar combinations. Substantially Mr. McKinley was in accord with Mr. Babcock, because he favored reduction of the duties upon articles which can be produced more cheaply in this than in other countries, but the majority of the Republicans in Congress, or at least those who control the majority, are not in accord with Mr. McKinley in that.

It is a somewhat remarkable fact that Senator Hanna and Representative Grosvenor, both of whom were intimate friends and counsellors of Mr. McKinley, differed from him in this. When they first began to talk about tariff revision on articles exported and sold for less abroad than at home Senator Hanna came out flat-footed against it and declared that to lower the duties on steel would be to encourage the dumping of Canadian steel on our market and the ruin of our steel industry. He has stood by the Steel Trust all along because he is pecuniarily interested in the steel business. The anti-revisionists are now citing the recent elections in the North as a ~~ication and endorsement by the~~ le. Gen. Grosvenor says that's the result of the election in means, and that is the view all take of it. A Washington dispatch a few days ago reported Gen. Grosvenor, who had come to Washington after the election, as follows:

"There is no more chance that the Republicans in Congress will attempt a revision of the tariff at the next session than they will revise the Ten Commandments,' said Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, this morning. Gen. Grosvenor made the remark just after he had called on President Roosevelt at the White House.

"The result of the election in Ohio, continued Gen. Grosvenor, 'ought to put a stop to the talk of tariff revision. The Democrats made their campaign squarely on the proposition to change the existing tariff law. They were overwhelmingly defeated. The lesson to be derived from the results is apparent, for the extent of victory was unexpected."

This is as Mr. Grosvenor sees fit to represent it but it is not a true statement, for the tariff was not an issue. The Republicans conducted their campaign from a national standpoint, arguing that the country is prospering, that this prosperity is the result of the policies of the Republican party, and therefore the party ought to be endorsed, while the Democrats conducted their campaign on State issues. Each ran its own campaign, so that the matter of the tariff did not come up as a distinct issue, although if it had we have no doubt that the State would have gone Republican as it did, for Hanna is a power in Ohio, which is a rock-ribbed Republican State anyway. It must be remembered, however, that the Republican leaders have been encouraging the reciprocity idea, that the masses of the Ohio Republicans had heard a good deal about reciprocity and were led to believe that this was part of the contemplated policy of the Republican statesmen, and that would mean necessarily more or less tariff revision, for reciprocity without tariff concessions wouldn't be worth the paper the treaties might be written on. But the reciprocity talk no doubt had its effect on the voters of Ohio.

As corroborating the dispatch quoting Gen. Grosvenor, a Washington dispatch of the same date thus substantially quotes Senator Foster:

"Senator Foster, of Washington, after talking with the President on prospective legislation, expressed the opinion that there would be no tariff tinkering at the coming session of Congress. The country was doing well enough, said he, and no changes were needed. With regrd to reciprocity treaties Senator Foster was not so sanguine. The people of his State were opposed to the Argentine treaty on account of the reduction on the duty on wool, and the fruit growers of California would resist the treaties with the West India dependencies on account of the effect in citrus fruits, while the beet and cane sugar interests would oppose any concessions to the sugar growers of Cuba."

Senator Foster, representing a Pacific State, and Gen. Grosvenor, of Ohio, are substantially in accord on the subject of tariff revision, or "tariff tinkering" as Senator Hanna calls it, and it seems from the dispatches that the President is in accord with them. There is very little doubt that a majority of the Republican members of both houses of Congress are also in accord, so that the protected manufacturers need have no fear that there will be any retouching of the tariff that will lessen the grip they have on the home market, or make it any easier for foreign manufacturers to compete with them. They have this assurance from distinguished Republican leaders and are also assured that the President is in accord with them. They propose to follow the "let well enough alone" policy whether it is well enough for the masses of the people or not. If it is well enough for the protected interests to which the Republican managers look for campaign funds, and they can continue to humbug the people as they have been doing with the claims they make for the Redublican party and the promises they make, that's all they care for.

For some time they have been playing reciprocity to divert attention and discussion from tariff revision when there is really nothing in the reciprocity they propose, and there is no prospect of passing any reciprocity measure that would be worth anything to the country. Every treaty that contains anything of importance will be opposed and vigorously opposed by the interests that might be affected by it.

In the dispatch quoted above Senator Foster doesn't think the reciprocity scheme will amount to anything. Speaking for the Pacific side he said the sentiment in his State was opposed to reciprocity with the Argentine Republic because it would interfere with their wool-growing industry; California would oppose treaties with the West Indies because they would interfere with the fruit growing industry, and the sugar growers and makers would oppose reciprocity with Cuba because that would interfere with them. And so it goes. The only treaties that will not be vigorously fought will be with those countries with which and from which we have little or no trade, and where reciprocity would amount to but little however liberal it might be.

No, there isn't going to be any tariff revision or reciprocity either worthy of the name.

FOR GOOD ROADS.

The road making train sent out by the Southern Railway, the object of which is to give some practical object lessons in the construction of good roads, is, we are glad to note, stimulating interest in that subject. One of the results of the meeting at Asheville was the organization of a "Good Roads Association," composed of progressive men, to advocate and lead in the movement for good roads in the mountain section of the State.

The first meeting and the first object lesson, was at Winston, where the train made its first stop, and the experts constructed their first piece of road. There were a number of speakers at this meeting from different counties in the State, many counties being represented. Among the speakers were Senators Simmons and Pritchard. The former, in discussing the subject and its importance to the State, took the position that the State's penitentiary convicts should be thus employed, contending that the convicts "should be worked where the result of their labors is a common and universal benefit, instead of being worked on farms and in factories where the products of their labor come into open contact with the products of free labor—of the people who pay the taxes. The continual mismanagement and great expense to run the farms, with fat salaries to favorites, would be remedied, and the highways of the State could be made respectable with benefit resulting to all, and without convict labor conflicting with free labor." The State press is warmly commending this utterance, and very properly, too.

This is substantially the position the STAR has taken on this question In the past ten years it has published scores of editorials advocating the working of convicts on our public roads, showed how it could be done, and the convicts be made self-supporting while they were working the roads, about the only expense to the State being the cost of guarding and superintending and the road-making machinery to expedite and do good work.

With the number of convicts annually available and with business method this State could within ten years have a system of turnpikes with branches, running through the State that would be a credit to it, of inestimable benefit to the people, and worth millions to the State in the increased value of property, an illustration of which is furnished in Mecklenburg county where the value of farming lands along the improved roads has increased from double to fourfold.

The United Verde gold mine, in Arizona, purchased some time ago by Senator Clark, of Montana, is said to be the richest gold mine in the world. The gold bearing vein is from 400 to 600 feet wide and pans out at the rate of $75 a ton. Borings have been made to a depth of 1,400 feet, with no indications of giving out. It is estimated that it can be worked to a depth of 3,000 feet before it gets too warm. The estimated value of the vein now in sight is $2,500,000,000. Clark has refused an offer of $500,000,000 for it. He is so well satisfied that he has the daisy mine of the world that he is not afraid of anybody or any syndicate persuading him to sell it.

PENSION ATTORNEYS.

In our comments on the report of the Commissioner of Pensions, H. C. Evans, we remarked that most of the abuse against which he has been contending was the work of grasping, dishonest and unscrupulous pension attorneys, who live mainly by their pension practice, and resort to all sorts of devices to get claims through and swindle the Government. Speaking of this the Commissioner, in his report, says:

"There were registered June 30th, 1901, 19,992 attorneys authorized to prosecute pension claims. It is a well known fact that some of the attorneys practicing before this bureau are men of the highest standing in the communities in which they live; but because of the comparatively small fees which may be charged and the amount of work involved, if an attorney is conscientious, the pursuit has not attracted so many reputable practitioners as might be hoped for. On the other hand, it has attracted a large number of unscrupulous men who, seeing the many opportunities for the perpetration of fraud with small prospects of detection, calculate to prosecute to a favorable issue nearly every case filed by them, and to accomplish their object they adopt every species of fraud known to men."

Here is, in round numbers, an army of 20,000 men who make it their business to get up claims for pensions and to push them through and consequently they do everything they can to get them through, whether they be honest or dishonest claims; the more dishonest the more they exert themselves to get them allowed, and the more deceit and crookedness they will resort to.

These 20,000 embrace only the attorneys who are registered by the Department, and do not include the number of agents or assistants employed by the registered practitioners, local agents, who get up the facts, make up the cases and send them to their principals to be filed and looked after. There are probably thousands of these who are not known to the Department, but they all have a pull at the pensioner, and through the pensioner at the Treasury.

As they get a pretty large slice of each pension with which they have anything to do, and the Government has paid out in pensions since 1865 $2,763,350,033, it is easily seen that their pull in the aggregate must run up into many millions. They are a power not only in the pull they have on the pensions and the Treasury, but in politics, and that hurts the country more than the money they get out of the Treasury. They are stumbling blocks in the way of reform, and fight the reformer at every step.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— Mr. Grosvenor is quoted as assuring the President that he regards the Republican victory in Ohio as an indorsement of the party's tariff policy. And Mr. Grosvenor can always be relied on to produce the figures if necessary.—Washington Star, Rep.

—— The engineer of a train running to the Mexican border who is found to have been smuggling goods into this country for several years past to the extent of $20,000 annually, yielded to the temptation which the Republican party spread before him in a tariff to protect domestic wares that needed no protection. His profit was doubtless drawn from the 60 per cent. duty.—Brooklyn Citizen, Dem.

—— New Orleans, although the largest river in the world flows by her doors, has been for twenty-five years in the grasp of a private water company, and has been short of water. The Louisiana Supreme Court, by a decision on Wednesday, forfeited the charter of the company, for non-compliance by the company with its provisions. From a sanitary point of view alone, it is a great victory for the people of New Orleans.—Mobile Register, Dem.

—— Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, has been swift to put an interpretation on the increased Republican majority in Ohio. He says it shows that the people don't want any tariff tinkering. We wonder what interpretation Mr. Grosvenor would put on the decreased Republican majority in Pennsylvania. As indicating the opinion of the people in the chiefest of the Protectionist States the slump in Pennsylvania may be deemed a slant toward reciprocity or tariff revision.—Phil. Record, Dem.

— Goldsboro Argus: The frost this week has played havoc with the flowers, and therefore the chrysanthemum show which was to have taken place Tuesday night for the benefit of the Emergency Hospital has been called off.

— Tarboro Southerner: Much cotton has been marketed by farmers because they fear the price will go lower. Unless there is disturbance in the commercial world it is not clear how the price can go much lower even with a crop of 11,000,000 bales.

— Newbern Journal: The effect of the frost a few nights is now fully apparent in the cotton fields. The cotton planted on the truck farms after the destructive hail storm in May was still in full leaf some days ago and very tall, and so thick that the rows could scarcely be seen. The frost has killed the leaves of the plants and the fields are as brown as if a fire had passed over them. It is thought that the killing of the leaves will be a benefit as the sun will now reach the bolls and hasten their opening. The plants are pretty full of bolls in all stages of development but most of them will open.

— Asheville Citizen: One of the interesting features of the murder trial of Robert L. King before Judge Boyd in the United States Court Friday was the calling of J. W. King, father of the prisoner, as one of the jurors in the case. The father happened to have been summoned as a juror for this term of the court and considerable of a sensation was caused in the court room when he was called to pass judgment upon his son's guilt or innocence. Counsel for the prisoner at once announced to the court the close relationship between the two and the juror was excused from serving in that case.

— Greensboro Telegram: The revenue force in Mr. A. C. Patterson's office were engaged in an unusual task Saturday afternoon, that of knocking in the heads of barrels of cordials and allowing the contents to pour out upon the ground. The cordials were the property of Mr. B. F. Sprinkle, and were seized when he was arrested several months ago for irregularities in the conduct of a government refinery. The cordials have since been stored in the revenue warehouse in this city, and were taken today to the farm of officer M. A. Whittington south of the city and there emptied upon the ground. It is an experiment on the part of Mr. Whittington to see if the cordial is valuable as a fertilizer. There were 140 barrels and each barrel contained fifty gallons of fluid. Owing to the liquid being cordial and not whiskey, the revenue force could not sell it.

— Charlotte News: Mr. Robert Capps, who lives about ten miles from Charlotte, received injuries Saturday morning from which it is feared he cannot recover. Early Saturday morning Mr. Capps went to his gin, not far from his home, in order to begin the day's work. Everything started off well and he returned to his home. Later on—about 11 o'clock—something got wrong with the gin and Mr. Capps commenced an investigation. He was underneath the gin trying to ascertain what was wrong when his coat or shirt caught in one of the cogs and before he could be extricated the wheels had torn his body fearfully. —— A telephone message from Pineville Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock states that the injured man was still alive but that his death was expected any moment. The reporter learned that Mr. Capp's body was fearfully torn and that it was some minutes after the gin machinery was stopped before he could be extricated from the machinery. —— Silas Washington, the colored porter at the First National Bank, has an apple tree in his yard filled with apples—the second crop this year. —— Louis Moore, who is now in jail charged with bigamy, will have a hard time trying to prove his innocence. Chief Irwin is in receipt of a letter from Chesterfield, S. C., stating that Moore married a Miss Rosa Rivers and that she, with her two children, are now residing in Chesterfield county. It will be remembered that Moore was married to a woman by the name of Mullis last Tuesday and that he was bound over to the Superior Court in the sum of $500.

OUR NATIVE PLANTS.

A New Movement For Their Protection—Any One Can Lend a Hand.

"A number of persons who take a keen interest in wild flowers have united to form a 'Society For the Protection of Native Plants.' The object of this society is to try to do something to check the wholesale destruction to which many of our native plants are exposed—a destruction often a matter of pure thoughtlessness in the excessive picking of flowers and unnecessary pulling up of roots or an extensive collecting of flowers and plants for sale.

"It is the intention of the society to publish brief articles or leaflets calling the attention of thoughtful people to the matter and to point out what plants especially need protection and in what way the desired end may be best effected. It is the intention to distribute these leaflets to teachers in schools, to flower missions and village improvement societies and in such other places as it may seem that they will be effective.

"This movement for the protection of native plants has the approval of the New England Botanical club, which as a body feels keenly the loss or great reduction of many plants once more or less abundant in the neighborhood of large cities.

"For information in regard to the Society For the Protection of Native ... a member of the society states that there is no reason why the society should be local in its action, and it is hoped that there may eventually be members throughout the country. There are many persons belonging to it who are well known as botanists, besides others who are interested simply from their love of natural beauty.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK November 11.—The cotton market opened easy, with prices four to seven points lower and continued to decline after the call under liquidation of a professional nature on Saturday's late bulge and selling by bear leaders. The basis of this trading was weakness in Liverpool where spinners were selling hedges against cotton. While there was a sharp reaction to 7.46 for January, later in the morning, the market failed to show any recuperative energy of consequence during the early session and at noon prices were back to the opening figures. Large port receipts, offerings of print cloths by Borden in Fall River at lower prices, generally favorable weather conditions in the belt and a scarcity of public orders made it easy for the bears to keep prices below Saturday's closing level. A forecast for unsettled weather in the eastern belt and for colder temperatures in the western belt to-night had very little effect in the afternoon when exporters sold the market down to the lowest figures of the day. Wall street bought around 7.40 for January in the last hour and some bulls picked up a little cotton on rumors that Southern markets were stiffening. As an offset to a large estimate for to-morrow's New Orleans receipts, Houston predicted a very light movement at that point, with private advices declaring that Texas receipts from now on will continue light. Trading was unusually light pretty much all day and for the most part comprised professional operations of an evening up character. The market closed steady and net seven to eleven points lower.

FARM AND GARDEN

HANDLING STRAW.

How to Make a Light Barrow For Moving Small Quantities.

When straw is stacked outside the barn and some of it is wanted in the stable for feeding or bedding purposes, the usual plan is to carry in a little at a time on a fork or in a rope or strap sling. This in the use of a fork is anything but a speedy operation, next to impossible on a windy day and with a sling a very unpleasant job in cold weather, as an Ohio Farmer contributor remarks. He therefore suggests and sketches an easily and cheaply made contrivance to facilitate moving the straw, which may also be useful for transporting small quantities of hay from place to place.

Procure first some light laths, say three-fourths by two inches, and make an almost square frame, using eleven of the lath pieces as if making a box with one corner left out. On the inside of this frame at the desired height nail two heavier and longer pieces for handles. A couple of 3 by 1 inch boards, proper length and with one end of each narrowed down to fit the hands, will answer for the handle pieces. On the bottom of the frame nail lath or boards, letting the two nearest to the center project about six inches in front. These two should be a little heavier than the others to prevent springing. Between the projecting ends place a small wooden wheel six or eight inches in diameter. This wheel may be a circular piece cut from a one or one and one-half inch board and have a light iron band fitted on to keep it from splitting or be a wheel from an old barrow or something similar. A light wire spoke wheel from a toy wagon is excellent for the purpose.

The axle on which the wheel revolves is attached to the under side of the projecting pieces of the frame by a staple driven over it into each piece. The two rear upright pieces of the frame extend down level with the lower rim of the wheel to act as feet. Put braces across the front (as indicated by dotted lines) to strengthen the frame and hold in the straw. Other light strips may be tacked on the sides of the frame to serve the same purpose.

If the contrivance is made of the right material, it will combine strength with lightness and be very durable. If made only 2½ by 3 by 4 feet, it will hold a considerable quantity of straw and be found a time and labor saver.

THRASHING THE POTATOES

A Harvester Built on a New Principle—Good on Smooth, Fine Lands.

For a long time those who produce large quantities of potatoes have felt the need of a machine that would do away with the hard and slow method of hand digging and picking. An implement which is used to some extent in England and is said to work satisfactorily is illustrated by The Rural New Yorker, which says:

This machine digs, cleans, sorts and delivers the potatoes into baskets. The separator part works on the same principle as the ordinary grain thrasher, so that those who use it may properly speak of thrashing their potato crop.

There is apparently nothing to prevent small stones or hard lumps of dirt from getting in with the tubers, and the natural conclusion is that the machine is intended only for use on soil that is free from stones and not wet or lumpy.

It ought to work to perfection on the prairie lands of the central west, and if it should come into general use the probabilities are that the bulk of the potatoes could be grown on these smooth lands on a large scale at a figure which could not possibly be met by the small grower in the east, who must depend largely on hand labor.

Hollyhock For the Hens.

Somebody says hens are as fond of hollyhock leaves as cats are of catnip. In fact, it is found that cats like the hollyhock and will eat it as the fowls do. A writer in one of our exchanges urges the planting of hollyhocks for chicken food and gives directions for their cultivation. For a hedge row there are few if any flowers more attractive or more suitable, but when used to feed the poultry the flowers, it seems, must be sacrificed. We would suggest that they be planted in quantities sufficient both for ornament and for hen food.

"I have been using hollyhock for poultry green fodder," says a poultry man, "for 20 years. I learned the trick from a Hollander. I saw him feeding armfuls of the leaves to his hens. Ever since that I have sowed hollyhocks regularly. The trouble is very little. The plant is a biennial—that is to say, it requires two years to come to blossom. In the first year it merely develops the root and lots of leaves of large size on soft stems from one to three feet high. These leaves are tender, and the hens relish them."—Farm, Field and Fireside.

An Item Against the Boll Weevil.

It is well known, says Professor F. Malley, that squares which do not bloom within six weeks of frost very seldom come to maturity. Such squares, therefore, serve chiefly as food and places for egg laying of the weevils. By turning stock into cotton fields late in the summer the young squares containing weevils will be grazed off. The stalks and other portions which are left by cattle may be cut down and piled up so as to serve as attractive hibernating quarters for the weevils. Such piles of refuse may be burned.

Brief Mention.

Louisiana is so far largely dependent upon other states for her horse and mule supply.

The days of scratching are well nigh numbered. Plowing will be done in the future, says the Georgia Cultivator.

Stock farming is the branch of agriculture that pays best in the grain and grass producing belt of the southwest, remarks Farm and Ranch.

The lowest human habitation is said to be that of the coal miners in Bohemia, some of whom make their dwellings at a point over 2,000 feet below the level of the sea.

How to Make Epicurean Butter.

Epicurean butter is served with grilled meats, etc. To make it put two tablespoonfuls of fresh butter in a small bowl and work into it thoroughly with the point of a silver knife a mixture of cayenne, mixed herb powder, minced parsley, lemon juice and mushroom powder. When this is accomplished, set it on the ice and as soon as solid stamp it into dainty pats. Dot these about the meat in serving.

How to Make Spanish Omelet.

Put a tablespoonful of butter into an omelet pan. When melted, add one sliced onion and cook until the onion is soft, but not brown. Beat four eggs until they are well mixed, add four tablespoonfuls of water and a dash of cayenne. Pour this into the pan with the butter and onion; shake; lift one side, drain the soft portion underneath. Dust with salt. Fold and serve on a hot plate.

How to Make Sour Milk Doughnuts.

Rub a cup of butter into two cups of sugar, add four beaten eggs, a cup of sour milk, a teaspoonful of soda dissolved in a little boiling water, a teaspoonful each of nutmeg and cinnamon and enough flour to make a dough that can be rolled out. Roll out and cut into shapes. Fry in deep, boiling lard.

THE LATEST AS TO NERVES AND STRENGTH

It is not muscle so much as the nerves back of muscle which show one's strength and power of endurance. And the study with able physicians of to-day is how to keep the nerves in perfect health and fitted for the strain of every-day living. Headache of every type, nerve weakness, dyspepsia, sleeplessness, languor, restlessness, nervous dyspepsia, muscular weakness, brain weariness, poor circulation,—a thousand different unpleasant feelings and symptoms are due to nerve waste and nerve weakness,—especially in women and children. But how can all this be prevented, one will ask? How can my broken-down constitution be repaired, and nerve strength and full, robust health be secured. Just two points to remember: Determine that you will grow strong in nerves and health, and decide to use at once that most famous nerve cure, COCELIN. It is delicious in taste, quick in action and makes the wearied nerves tingle with renewed strength and every function the stronger and faculty the brighter by its use. Druggists sell it.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 12.

SCHLEY COURT OF INQUIRY

Resumed Its Session Yesterday Behind Closed Doors—The Court Sittings Will Be Strictly Secret.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—At 10 o'clock to day Admiral George Dewey and Rear Admirals Benham and Ramsay, composing the Schley court of inquiry, met at their quarters in the McLean building behind closed doors and began the discussion and consideration of the evidence brought forward in the investigation concluded last week.

The sittings of the court are to be strictly secret. Their present plan is to hold daily sessions from 10 to 12:30 o'clock, adjourning at the latter hour for the day, though this arrangement may be changed as the work of the body progresses. The court has two small rooms for its work—one for the members themselves and the other for the accommodation of clercial help. At the door of the latter is stationed a sergeant of marines whose uniform would be the only surface suggestion to a chance called that something out of the ordinary was going on in these two little rooms. The court adjourned at 12:30 for the day. Admiral Dewey said after to day's session that as yet he could not foretell how long it would be before the court would be ready with its findings. He pointed out that it had taken nearly eight weeks of searching examination to produce the material in hand, and that the court could not be expected to draw its conclusion in a hurry. When asked if the work was divided, in the interests of expediency, among the members of the court, the Admiral said:

"No, we are working together as a court should."

BILL IN EQUITY FILED

To Compel Settlement of Western N. C. Railroad Bonds

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—An original bill in equity was filed to-day in the United States Supreme Court by John L. Pyle, attorney general of South Dakota, against the State of North Carolina, to compel a settlement on bonds issued in the name of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company. The State of South Dakota is the owner of ten shares of these bonds, of $1,000 par value each, donated for the benefit of the State University. It appears that when the railroad in question was built the State of North Carolina subscribed for 30,000 shares, amounting to $3,000,000 of the stock of the railroad company, and in return guaranteed the payment of certain bonds, among which are included those held by South Dakota. It is alleged that notwithstanding the State of North Carolina is receiving dividends on the stock held by it, there has been a failure on account of an extension of time to pay the bonds or the interest on them. The bill filed to-day asks for a general determination and settlement of the question.

NEGRO ARRESTED.

Charged With Stealing $4,700 From the Valise of a U. S. Paymaster.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 11.—The police department of this city have placed under arrest J. H. Alexander, a negro in the employ of the United States government, charging him with having stolen $4,700 from the valise of Major P. L. Stevens, a United States paymaster, last Friday evening. Maj. Stevens states that the money was left in a valise in care of the negro to be taken to the Union depot in this city, prior to Maj. Stevens' departure for Pensacola. By a misunderstanding the negro did not meet the major at the depot in time to catch the train and the valise was carried back to Major Stevens' office. Major Stevens reported to the city detectives that he carried the valise to Pensacola and when he arrived there he found that the currency, amounting to $4,700, had been stolen. The negro has been in the employ of the government for a number of years and denies that he has stolen the money. Detectives are at work upon the case.

TURPENTINE INDUSTRY.

Preliminary Report For the Year 1900 Issued by the Census Bureau.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—A preliminary report on the turpentine and rosin industry of the United States was to-day issued by the census bureau, showing the extent of the industry in the census year of 1900 as compared with 1890. According to this statement, the total value of these two products for 1900 was $20,344,888, against $8,077,379 for 1890. The number of establishments was 1,502, against 670 in 1890; the capital employed $11,833,845, against $4,062,875; the average number of wage earners 41,864, against 15,266; the total wages paid $8,390,633, against $2,906,547, and the cost of materials used $6,196,596, against $2,874,693.

THE FERTILIZER TRUST

Acquires Controlling Interest in the Southern Chemical Company.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 11.—A special from Winston-Salem, N. C., says the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, known as the "Fertilizer Trust," has obtained a controlling interest in the Southern Chemical Company, of that city. The Southern Chemical Company has a capital stock of $200,000, and its output has been very large ever since it establishment.

THE VENEZUELAN-COLOMBIAN WAR.

A Struggle Between the Liberal and Conservative Parties of Both Countries.

NOT AN INTERNATIONAL WAR.

Interview With a Leader of the Liberal Forces--The Purpose of the Liberals. Panama Canal--Want Americans to Build It.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MARACAIBO, VENEZUELA, Oct. 31.—A correspondent of the Associated Press has just had an interview with Gen. Uribe Uribe. He found the General strongly encamped in the Cordillera mountains, on the frontier line between the Venezuelan State of Tachira and the Colombian province of Santander. His headquarters were at a hamlet called Luisiana, half a day's ride from San Cristobal, the capital of Tachira. His command, numbering several thousand Colombian Liberals, was holding the extreme left of the Venezuelan line of the defence, covering the approaches of San Cristobal and the Encentrados railroad from the direction of Cucutua. Gen. Chalbant Cordonne held the centre with Gen. Modeste Castro at the extreme right.

On the Colombian side, Gens. Valencia, a former minister, Juan Berti, and Rangel Garbiras, the Venezuelan recel, are in command. Altogether, some sixteen thousand soldiers stand face to face on the frontier. Skirmishes and raids across the frontier are of daily or rather of nightly occurrence.

Gen. Uribe Uribe readily consented to an interview. Speaking fluently in French he said:

Not International War.

"As President Castro has but recently declared, this is not an international war between Venezuela and Colombia, but a struggle between the Liberal and Conservative parties of both countries. Here in Venezuela we all serve under the yellow standard of the Liberal party, as do our friends in Ecuador, in Guatemala, in Nicaragua and in the Liberal strongholds of the Colombian Guajira. We helped repel the recent attack on San Cristobal on the part of the Colombian and Venezuelan Conservatives under Garibiras, and now we have undertaken to help guard the Venezulean frontier against foreign attacks. My force is simply a part of the Venezuelan line of defence and, as its commander, I stand under the orders of General Iasimo Cipriano Castro, just like the other Liberal general on this side of the frontier. If I were to engage in separate operations I should run the risk of interfering with the disposition of our fellow Liberals in the field and would probably lose Gen. Castro's support, especially if I compromised his cause. We are not as yet strong enough to do without the help of our allies outside the confines of Colombia.

Purposes of the Liberals.

"There are some open promises and engagements to which I stand committed, together with all my beloved countrymen in the field. First of all, we have engaged ourselves in case of success to do all in our power to change the money standard of Colombia from its present debased paper currency to a standard of silver and gold. We shall not repudiate any National debt, but as soon as it can be effected, the wretched paper bills, which are now being turned out in Bogota by the bushel, shall be withdrawn from circulation. Next, we shall try to effect a definite settlement as to the Isthmus canal question and of the pending international negotiations. We shall stand by all our national treaties, as, for instance, the treaty with the United States in 1846, guaranteeing the neutrality of the isthmus railroad; but we shall put a definite stop to the present underhand dickering for our most valuable concessions to European countries. Colombian in regard to the Isthmus by the term of the last treaty expire in 1904. French capitalists have obtained an illegal extension of these concessions. Our Congress, when it last met in 1899, refused to ratify these concessions. I, myself, as the only Liberal representative in Congress, voted against such ratification. In defiance of the Colombian constitution President San Clemente, after the dissolution of the Congress, arbitrarily granted the concessions to France. Now the French company is trying to sell these same concessions to American capitalists for seventy million dollars. How much better it would be to put this sum of money into the construction of the canal.

Concessions to France

"We have had enough of Panama frauds. We do not want the French to meddle further with the canal. We know, as all the world knows, that the Americans can finish the canal in half the time and for half the money. We want Americans to undertake the completion of the canal, and we willingly accept the protection of the great North American republic at the isthmus, as we have already done in regard to the trans-isthmus railroad. Even at the present juncture, we have no objection to the landing of American troops at the isthmus. Come what may between us and our Conservative enemies, we know that the Americans will content themselves with protecting the railroad. I have implicit trust that they will hold the balance true."

MURDER IN MARSHALL, N. C.

Peter Smith Charged With Killing His Stepdaughter—Only the Head of the Murdered Girl Found.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 11.—A special to the News and Observer, from Marshall, N. C., says:

Peter Smith was to-day lodged in jail here charged with the murder of his step-daughter, Hannah Fleming. Smith is about 47 years of age. On last Thursday the head of the unfortunate girl was found about a quarter of a mile above Smith's house among a lot of logs, and hair and blood stains were found about the fence, and at the foot of the hill the skull and some wearing apparel. The body of the unfortunate girl has not yet been discovered.

One of the charges against the defendant is that he is the author of the young girl's downfall and, this is alleged by the State to be the motive of the crime. Smith protests his innocence. Search for the body still continues and the good people of Spring Creek are very much wrought up over the crime.

Quality is what makes price. If Burnett's Vanilla Extract was no better than other extracts its price would be the same. Once tried always used.

ATTEMPT TO DEFRAUD INSURANCE COMPANY.

N. C. Rathbun Supposed to Have Been Found Dead in Jeffersonville, Ind., Arrested in Louisville.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LOUISVILLE, KY., November 11.—Newell Rathbun, who was supposed to have been found dead in a Jeffersonville, Ind., hotel last Thursday, was arrested in Louisville to-day. According to Rathbun the corpse which was shipped to Little Rock for burial as the body of Rathbun, was the body of W. L. Ten Eycke. The police say Rathbun has confessed to desertion from the United States army and to have formed a plan to fraudulently collect $4,000 insurance on his life, but that he denies having killed the man who died in the Jeffersonville hotel.

Rathbun was arrested this morning at the U. S. recruiting station in Louisville. He is held as a fugitive from justice. The arrest was made on information from Sergeant Skinner of the U. S. recruiting station. Rathbun enlisted under the name of "Lou Root, Detroit." Sergeant Skinner had read the story of the Jeffersonville affair and the circumstances connected with the new recruit aroused his suspicions. One of these was the fact that the man had on a government suit of underwear. Rathbun said he had bought the garments from a soldier friend. Another circumstance was his knowledge of army affairs about Little Rock. He passed the examination and enlisted Saturday.

At the detectives' office Rathbun was put through the sweating process and under pressure made the confession.

The police are trying to establish the identity of the dead man. One of their theories is that he was a tramp that Rathbun had fallen in with. The police have telegraphed to the Little Rock authorities to hold the corpe. A gold watch bearing the name "W. H. Ellis" was found on Rathbun. He refuses to say where he got it. The police say the handwriting of "Louis Root," the recruit, was very similar to the signature "L. Ten Eycke" on the Jeffersonville register. Coroner Coots, Jeffersonville, states that he had examined the stomach of the man and found traces of enough laudanum to kill two men.

FILIPINO INSURGENTS ATTACK AMERICANS.

Attempt to Repeat Samar Tactics—Insurgents Routed—Five Killed—One American Wounded.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MANILA, Nov. 11.—Maj. Wm. L. Pitcher, of the Eighth regiment of infantry, commanding the Mindora expedition, reports that the garrison of Abra de Ilog was attacked yesterday by a force of insurgents commanded by Lenocos. The Filipinos apparently attempted to repeat the Samar tactics, but the Americans, who were breakfasting, fully armed, completely routed the insurgents, who left five men dead on the field, each having a rifle and ammunition. One of the Americans was seriously wounded

Captain Noyes, of the Thirtieth infantry, commanding a detachment of fifty men, has captured a deserter named Richter, of the Sixth artillery, wearing the uniform of an insurgent lieutenant

Major Pitcher recently captured three officers and a large part of an insurgent camp, all fully armed. It is believed the insurgents recently received an illicit supply of munitions of war.

CATBOLOGAN, ISLAND OF SAMAR, Nov. 11.—The insurgents are flocking northward. They are suffering greatly from the famine. Many isolated Bolomen have surrendered. Only fear caused by Lukban's proclamation threatening with death those who surrender prevents a general submission of the insurgents, but it is expected that this will be secured in a few days.

HOMICIDE IN FLORIDA.

H. C. Harby, a Wealthy Citizen, Shot and Killed by J. H. Redding.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MADISON, FLA., Nov. 11.—News reaches here that H. C. Harby, a wealthy citizen, was shot and killed in a car of the south bound South Georgia and Florida West Coast railroad, near Greenville this afternoon, by Hon. J. H. Redding, a member of the last Florida Legislature. Redding was aboard the train and asked the conductor to stop at a flag station three miles from Greenville, which was near his farm. In the meantime the train was being flagged down at the same station. When the train stopped Harby stepped on the car and Redding, it is alleged, shot him down. No other particulars are known. The men were brothers-in-law and among the most prominent people in this section of the State.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Seaboard Air Line Railway to Florida, Cuba, Savannah, Camden, Southern Pines and Pinehurst.

Winter excursion tickets were placed on sale to resort points on this line in North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, on October 15th, and will remain on sale during the season. Exceptionally low rates are in effect this year to Pinehurst and Southern Pines, N. C., Camden, S. C., Savannah, Ga., and all points in Florida and Cuba. To reach any of these points, the service of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, "Capital City Route," will be found the best and most attractive. In addition to the superior service now operated, it is announced that Cafe cars will be placed in service on the Washington-Atlantic Line about November 1st, and on the Florida Lines about January 1st, 1902. Following this the Florida & Metropolitan Limited will be inaugurated about January 15th, 1902, with sumptuous appointments and superb equipment, including dining and club cars, constituting it beyond a doubt, the peer of any train in the world.

The service of the Seaboard Air Line Railway to Cuba is most attractive. Its Cafe car service and many other features present advantages commending it to the favorable attention of all travellers.

See that your Winter Tourist tickets read via the Florida & West Indian Short Line, Seaboard Air Line Railway. †

Jimmy Handler, of Newark, and "Young" Pete Jackson, of California, fought eighteen terrific rounds to a draw at Trenton, N. J., last night. The bout was scheduled for twenty rounds, but the police stopped it in the 18th round when both men were groggy but still fighting like demons.

NEGRO LEADER OF ESCAPED CONVICTS

Shot Down and Captured After a Hard Fight With a Posse of Officers.

HE WOULD NOT SURRENDER.

Another One of the Escaped Prisoners, a White Boy, Mortally Wounded While Making a Dash Through a Cordon of Armed Men.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, November 11.—Frank Thompson, the negro leader of the mutiny at the Federal prison at Leavenworth which resulted in the escape last Thursday of twenty-six prisoners, was captured eight miles north of Council Grove this evening by a posse under command of Deputy United States Marshal E. A. Prescott. Thompson would not surrender, but was taken after a hard fight with the officers, in which he was shot in the head, but not severely injured. No member of the posse was hurt.

Deputy Marshal Prescott has been at Council Grove since Saturday morning watching for escaped prisoners. A number of them are in this vicinity and several destructions to property have resulted from their presence. This morning Deputy Prescott heard of the presence of a negro convict a few miles north of town and immediately set out to make the capture, assisted by Sheriff Michael and other officers. The officers had emerged from a wooded tract when they saw Thompson running across the open. He was ordered to halt but answered by wheeling around and doing some rapid firing with a 44 calibre revolver. The officers fired and Thompson dropped. He was stunned and easily secured. Thompson will be taken back to the penitentiary to-morrow.

KANSAS CITY, MO., Nov. 11.—Lawrence Lewis, one of the escaped Fort Leavenworth convicts, was mortally wounded this morning near Quenemo, Kas., while making a dash through a cordon of armed deputies.

Lewis is a white boy, twenty years of age, who was sent up in October, 1900, to undergo a five-year sentence for larceny. He was tracked to a wooded place near Quenemo by the city marshal of that place, which is situated forty miles southwest from Fort Leavenworth, and a dozen men bearing rifles. An order to surrender was met with defiance and Lewis unarmed, and although practically surrounded, darted for the nearest opening. He had gone scarcely a hundred yards when a bullet from a Winchester in the hands of one of his pursuers pierced his lung from behind and brought him to the ground. Bleeding and fatally wounded, Lewis was taken to the marshal's office and cared for and Warden McClaughey was notified.

DUEL TO THE DEATH.

Two Farmers in Jasper County, Ga. Empty Their Pistols Into Each Other.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MACON, GA., November 11.—John Goolsby and Charlie Fullerton, two prominent farmers of Hillsboro, in Jasper county, near here, emptied their pistols into each other at close range this afternoon. Fuller was killed instantly and Goolsby is dying. They had quarrelled about a piece of land. Goolsby raised his shotgun and Fullerton seized it. Each held it with his left hand and drew their pistols. Thus they fought until Fullerton fell dead and Goolsby staggered a few paces, fell, and then raised up on his elbow and emptied both barrels of the gun into the dead body near him.

ALABAMA ELECTION.

Indications of An Overwhelming Majority For the New State Constitution.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MONTGOMERY, November 9.—At 10 o'clock to-night Geo. W. Jones, district chairman of the ratification campaign committee, claims that nine counties out of the second congressional district will give 7,000 majority for ratification of the new constitution. Mr. Jones says the figures indicate that the State will give an overwhelming majority for the constitution.

Six wards in the city of Montgomery give 2,306 majority for ratification.

WARM WIRELETS.

A special dispatch from Paris says Admiral Caillard's squadron left the Island of Mitylene yesterday morning.

George Foster Peabody, of New York city, has practically donated $31,000 to the Montgomery, Ala., Young Men's Christian Association.

Trainmen on the Iron Mountain railroad state a work train was wrecked at Prescott, near Texarkana, Ark., killing six negroes and injuring fifteen others.

The cruiser Olympia, which has been undergoing extensive repairs at the Boston yard, will be put in commission December 18th and be assigned to the North Atlantic squadron.

Danny Dougherty, of Philadelphia, Terry McGovern's sparring partner, was knocked out in the second round of what was to have been a 15-round fight by Harry Forbes, of Chicago, at St. Louis last night.

The failure of John K. Mearsmith, cotton broker, Baltimore, is announced. He was arrested a few days ago charged by the Merchants National Bank of Baltimore with fraudulently hypothecating bills of lading for cotton.

At Elizabethtown, Tenn., yesterday Frank Kidwell, aged 23 years, shot and killed his sweetheart, Ada Thompson, aged 16, and then committed suicide. The cause of the tragedy is said to be refusal of the girl's father to allow Kidwell to visit his daughter and her declination to marry him.

Richard Mayo Smith, a professor of political economy at the Columbia University, New York, was killed last night by falling from a window of his study on the fourth floor of his residence to the stone flagging. So far as the police have investigated the case they conclude that the fall was accidental.

CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST.

Gus Ruhlin to Meet Jeffries in San Francisco Friday Night.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Gus Ruhlin, who is to meet James Jeffries on Friday night, for the heavy weight championship, is growing in popular favor and to-day crept up in the betting so that the local odds are holding fairly steady at two to one, but a few days ago a considerable sum of money was wagered at three and three and a half to one. This is partially accounted for by the fact that George Siler, who has reached here from Chicago, has expressed confidence in Ruhlin's chances and looks for the advent of a new champion.
